

STUDY ABROAD IN OVIEDO, SPAIN

Wartburg is excited to offer Spanish language majors the opportunity to study at the University of Oviedo in Oviedo, Spain. This capital city of the Asturias principality in northwestern Spain is located near the Bay of Biscay and the Cantabrian Mountains. With a population of 220,000, Oviedo is known for its medieval city center and is home to several UNESCO World Heritage sites.

The University of Oviedo opened in 1608 and has approximately 27,000 students. Wartburg students will study at the university's Casa de las Lenguas, which offers intensive coursework in Spanish language and culture and an optional course in intensive Spanish for health science professionals.

Estimated total cost: $6,000 which includes University of Oviedo courses, room and board with a local homestay family, Wartburg travel insurance and credit transfer fees, and estimated airfare and personal expenses.

Dates: Two consecutive sessions from late May through late July, following end of Wartburg May Term

Contact Kathleen Sihler, study away coordinator, kathleen.sihler@wartburg.edu, for more information.