CHANGING THE CHARITY PARADIGM: How Reimagine Charity can Change Lives and Restore Community

Wednesday, Nov. 14, 2018
9 a.m. - 4 p.m.
Saemann Student Center
Wartburg College
Waverly, Iowa

SPONSORS:

Slife Institute for Social Work Consultation, Research, and Training

Based on the work and writings of noted community developer Robert Lupton (Toxic Charity, Charity Detox), this dynamic, practical workshop generates fresh ideas and energy for nonprofits, churches, service organizations, and business owners who wish to pursue real and lasting community change.

Through exercises and small group interaction, participants will work on real-life initiatives and come away prepared to revitalize their own community service work and projects.

PRESENTER

SHAWN DUNCAN

Dr. Shawn Duncan is the director of the Lupton Center, the training and consulting division of Focused Community Strategies, a community development organization serving under-resourced neighborhoods in Atlanta since 1978. He holds a Doctor of Ministry degree from Columbia Theological Seminary where his focus was missional formation.

His research and writing on the practice of neighboring are featured in the book, Joining Lives: A Primer on the Ministry of Reconciliation. His work with FCS is informed by a professional background in ministry, coaching, nonprofit leadership, and community development.

COST
