

Business Administration Major
Management Concentration
Intended Student Learning Outcomes

Students will:

1. analyze a real-world scenario to identify key issues and recommend action.
2. apply quantitative skills to solve business problems.
3. apply values and ethics to organizational problems.
4. formulate and communicate, using appropriate technology, a well-organized argument supported by evidence.
5. complete a business related task/project while participating in a team based environment.
6. demonstrate knowledge of planning, organizing, leading, and controlling in organizations and how they fit into today's business environment.

Fall 2016