✠ WHO WAS ✠

O Come, O Come, Emmanuel Traditional Latin, arr. Brandon Stewart

Narrator:

For God alone, my soul waits in silence. My soul longs for your presence. My heart and flesh cry out for the living God. I wait for you. My soul waits for you more than watchmen who wait for the morning. How long, O Lord? Will you forget us forever? How long will you hide your face from us? How long must we bear pain in our souls and have sorrow in our hearts? Where are you in our battered world? The Spirit and the Church cry out – Come, Lord Jesus. The whole earth pleads – Come, Lord Jesus. Come and put an end to war. Break the bow, shatter the spear, and burn the shields with fire. You are our refuge and strength. O Emmanuel, stir up your power and come.

O come, o come, Emmanuel, and ransom captive Israel,
That mourns in lonely exile here, until the son of God appear.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel!

O come, desire of nations, bind all people in one heart and mind;
Bid envy, strife, and quarrels cease; and fill the world with heaven's peace.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel!

Narrator:

God enters through our wounds where we can no longer keep God out. And God heals. God comes to us when our cups are empty, when there is at last room for God. And God fills. God appears to us when emptiness and sadness enslave us. And God leads each of us ... Through the waters, across the wilderness, over the mountains, to the manger, to freedom. God with us.

O come, thou dayspring, from on high, and cheer us by thy drawing nigh;
Disperse the gloomy clouds of night, and death's dark shadows put to flight.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel!

Narrator:

O people of the Earth, come! Come from the east and the west, from the north and the south and see that the glory of the Lord is revealed. See that we are not divided into separate nations, for the Lord has made us into one nation.

O come, all ye faithful! Joyful and triumphant!
Come ye, come ye to Bethlehem!

Come Ye to Bethlehem

AUDIENCE HYMN

Audience:

O little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep the silent stars go by;
Yet in thy dark streets shineth the everlasting light.
The hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight.

How silently, how silently the wondrous gift is giv'n,
So God imparts to human hearts the blessings of his heav'n.
No ear may hear this coming; but, in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive him, still the dear Christ enters in.

O holy child of Bethlehem, descend to us, we pray;
Cast out our sin, and enter in, be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas angels, the great glad tidings tell;
Oh, come to us, abide with us, our Lord Emmanuel.

PLEASE BE SEATED

Narrator:

Jesus said: "The light will be with you for a little longer. Walk while you have the light, lest the darkness overtake you. While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become children of light."

Almighty God, you have called your servants to ventures of which we cannot see the ending, by paths as yet untrodden, through perils unknown. Give us faith to go out with good courage, not knowing where we go, but only that your hand is leading us and your love supporting us; through your only Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Night of SilenceDaniel Kantor
arr. John Ferguson & Joshua A. Evanovich '07

Cold are the people, winter of life,
We tremble in shadows this cold endless night,
Frozen in the snow lie roses sleeping,
Flowers that will echo the sunrise,
Fire of hope is our only warmth,
Weary, its flame will be dying soon.

Voice in the distance, call in the night,
On wind you enfold us, you speak of the light,
Gentle on the ear you whisper softly,
Rumors of a dawn so embracing,
Breathless love awaits darkened souls,
Soon will we know of the morning.

Stille Nacht, heilige Nacht, alles schläft; einsam wacht
Nur das traute hoch heilige Paar. Holder Knabe im lockigen Haar, Schlaf in himmlischer Ruh! Schlaf in himmlischer Ruh!

Spirit among us, shine like the star,
Your light that guides shepherds and kings from afar,
Shimmer in the sky so empty, lonely,
Rising in the warmth of your son's love,
Star unknowing of night and day,
Spirit, we wait for your loving son.

PLEASE REMAIN SEATED AND JOIN IN SINGING AS DIRECTED

Silent Night, Holy Night!
All is calm, all is bright
'Round yon virgin mother and child.
Holy infant, so tender and mild,
Sleep in Heavenly peace,
Sleep in Heavenly peace.

WARTBURG COLLEGE

Named after the Wartburg Castle in Eisenach, Germany, Wartburg College traces its roots to 1852, when pastor Wilhelm Löhe of Neuendettelsau, Bavaria, sent Georg Grossmann and five students to found a teacher-training school for German immigrants in Saginaw, Mich. The college moved several times before establishing a permanent home in Waverly in 1935.

A liberal arts college of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, Wartburg is dedicated to challenging and nurturing students for lives of leadership and service as a spirited expression of their faith and learning.

Wartburg awards Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Music, Bachelor of Music Education, Bachelor of Music Therapy, and Master of Arts in Leadership. Its more than 60 areas of study include the state's oldest undergraduate social work major and the only music therapy degree offered by an Iowa private college.
