

3 + 3 WC/University of Iowa Law School

Possible career paths: lawyer, judge, government service

Wartburg College and the University of Iowa Law School have joined forces for the 3+3 Program. The program allows a junior at Wartburg to apply for admission to Iowa Law's Juris Doctor (JD) Program. If admitted to Iowa Law, the students would not attend Wartburg for their senior year. Instead, they would attend Iowa Law as a first-year student and would satisfy the remaining requirements for their Wartburg degree if they successfully completed their first year of law school. If they did not successfully complete their first year, they could return to Wartburg to fulfill whatever requirements remained.
