

THE WARTBURG CHAPEL

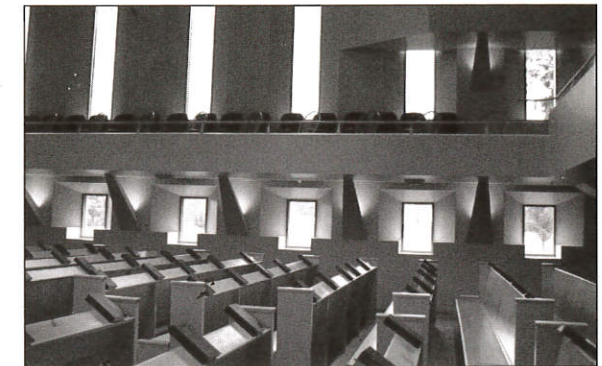

Chapel tower with copper spires, cross, clock, and bells

The Chapel

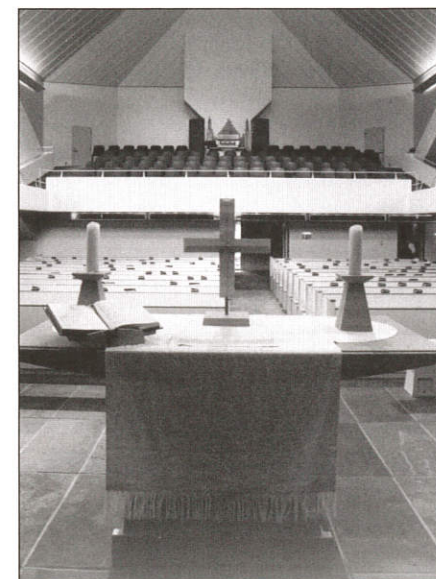

Worship is the central focus of the Wartburg Chapel. Floors slope downward from the tower toward the chapel, stairways widen at the bottom, opening toward worship, and ceilings in the narthex and entryway are purposely low to enhance the feeling of transcendence when entering the sanctuary. The chapel provides an intimate setting on the main floor, but visually lifts worshipers upward with its high ceilings and prominent east window. The building can accommodate up to 500 persons by utilizing balconies that extend around three sides of the sanctuary. Clear glass windows on the upper level provide a visual connection between the church and the world. The cross motif in the large east window above the altar appears throughout the building: in the stone altar cross, in the stained glass windows that line the main floor of the sanctuary, in the tower entry windows, and in the limestone inscription of Martin Luther's hymn, Ein Feste Burg ist unser Gott, on the west exterior wall. The twin copper spires and cross on the chapel tower create a visible symbol to the campus and the community of Wartburg's Christian heritage and its continuing commitment to the integration of faith and learning. The three tower bells were imported from France.

The architecture integrates Wartburg's German heritage and its Iowa roots. The exterior design, influenced by European churches, is carried out through extensive use of Anamosa limestone quarried at Stone City, Iowa. The unusual roof consists of 40 tons of large concrete shingles, each weighing approximately 13 pounds and held in place with copper nails.

A Campus Ministry Suite links the chapel and the tower and provides offices for the campus pastors and a center for campus ministry organizations. The chapel will be connected by skyways to the Fine Arts Center and to Luther Hall through the classroom/technology center now under construction.

The Pool of Remembrance—What Do These Stones Mean?

More than 300 stones will line the Pool of Remembrance on the west side of the Wartburg Chapel. The pool is a memorial to the many individuals and congregations who care deeply about Wartburg as a college of the church. The stones come from throughout the United States and around the world.

The stones signify the important link between the college and the congregations that provide Wartburg with students, faculty, and staff and support the college with prayers and gifts. The scriptural basis for the Pool of Remembrance is in the fourth chapter of Joshua, where a representative from each tribe of the Israelites was directed to take a stone and place it with the others, "...so that this may be a sign among you. When your children ask in time to come, 'What do these stones mean to you?' then you shall tell them that the waters of the Jordan were cut off in front of the ark of the covenant of the Lord ...So these stones shall be to the Israelites a memorial forever."

The water flowing over the stones is a reminder of baptism. The pool can be viewed from a window in the chapel narthex that frames the baptismal font.

The West Arcade

Etched into the Anamosa limestone on the west arcade are the names of persons, places, and associations that have played a significant role in the history of Wartburg College and its relationship to the Lutheran Church, to Eisenach, Germany, and to the Wartburg Castle.

PRELUDE

PRELUDE: Sine Nomine Ralph Vaughan Williams
Chamber Band and Organ

*ENTRANCE HYMN: For All the Saints LBW 174
Brass, Organ, Choir, Congregation

- 1. ALL
For all the saints who from their labors rest,
All who by faith before the world confessed,
Your name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
- 2. WOMEN
You were their rock, their fortress, and their might;
You, Lord, their captain in the well-fought fight;
You, in the darkness drear, their one true light.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
- 3. MEN
Oh, may your soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old
And win with them the victor's crown of gold.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
- 4. CHOIR
Oh, blest communion, fellowship divine,
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one within your great design.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

- 5. ALL, HARMONY
And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph song,
And hearts are brave again and arms are strong.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
- 6. ALL, HARMONY
The golden evening brightens in the west;
Soon, soon to faithful warriors comes their rest;
Sweet is the calm of paradise the blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
- 7. ALL
But then there breaks a yet more glorious day:
The saints triumphant rise in bright array;
The King of glory passes on his way.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
- 8. ALL
From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost:
Alleluia! Alleluia!

THE CHOIR

*Your word once uttered, becomes command;

Your voice engenders life o'er all the land,
From east to west your name's adored.
Breathe your spirit through all that's true,
Binding us as one, making all things new.*

*Your work is justice, goodness, and peace,
Striking angry people's greed and scorn
That hope for our common good increase
And our highest values be reborn.
Breathe your spirit through all that's just,
Urging us to widen our mutual trust.*

LITANY OF DEDICATION:

PASTOR: We praise you, O Lord, for your saints, the faithful cloud of witnesses, who have borne the Good News of your Grace through your holy Church to this time and place. As we dedicate this building, we remember with thanksgiving that we, with them, are a Spiritual House of living stones, signs of your love and presence in your world. May we be inspired by their example and share their eternal joy.

CONGREGATION: WE ALSO, LIKE LIVING STONES, ARE BEING BUILT INTO A SPIRITUAL HOUSE.

PASTOR: We praise you, O Lord, for this college, for faculty, staff, and administrators, who over the past 142 years have dedicated themselves to challenging and nurturing students for lives of leadership and service, as a spirited expression of their faith and learning. May this labor continue to bear fruit in your world.

CONGREGATION: WE ALSO, LIKE LIVING STONES, ARE BEING BUILT INTO A SPIRITUAL HOUSE.

PASTOR: We praise you, O Lord, for the inventive vision of your servant Elmer Wavering, for his love of Vera and his family, for his generous spirit, without which this building and this day would not be possible. May this chapel bear testimony to his vision, his love, and his spirit.

CONGREGATION: WE ALSO, LIKE LIVING STONES, ARE BEING BUILT INTO A SPIRITUAL HOUSE.

PASTOR: We praise you, O Lord, for all who have given of their wealth and talent in the erection of this edifice. The rich furnishings, pealing bells, soaring steeples, carved stone, flowing fountain, and vistas of light proclaim their handiwork. May their memory live on through their gifts of love, in the stones and spirit of this holy place.

CONGREGATION: WE ALSO, LIKE LIVING STONES, ARE BEING BUILT INTO A SPIRITUAL HOUSE.

PASTOR: We praise you, O Lord, for congregations throughout your church, communities of faith where your Word is proclaimed and your liberating, empowering Gospel is celebrated. For their partnership with us, symbolized in our Pool of Remembrance and in their sons and daughters shared with this place, we give you thanks.

CONGREGATION: WE ALSO, LIKE LIVING STONES, ARE BEING BUILT INTO A SPIRITUAL HOUSE.

PASTOR: We praise you, O Lord, for places to which Wartburg extends, places represented by stones in our Pool of Remembrance that have enriched and shaped our community . . . places such as Neuendettelsau, Eisenach, Berlin, St. Sebald, Denver, Bethsaida. For all places near and dear to us, which we name in our hearts, we give you thanks.

CONGREGATION: WE ALSO, LIKE LIVING STONES, ARE BEING BUILT INTO A SPIRITUAL HOUSE.

PASTOR: We praise you, O Lord, for students . . . past, present, and yet to come. May their inquiring minds and searching hearts continue to find meaning and purpose through the preaching of your Word; the celebration of the sacraments, and the community of your Spirit found here. May this building be a blessing in their growth and identity as your people.

CONGREGATION: WE ALSO, LIKE LIVING STONES, ARE BEING BUILT INTO A SPIRITUAL HOUSE.

ALL: GRACIOUS AND ETERNAL GOD, IN GRATEFUL RESPONSE TO ALL THESE BLESSINGS, WE DEDICATE THIS BUILDING, THE WARTBURG CHAPEL, TO YOUR GLORY AND HONOR AND TO THE FAITHFUL SERVICE OF YOUR PEOPLE.

PASTOR: In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

ALL: AMEN AND AMEN!

BENEDICTION AND CHORALE

*Lord, let your faithful love rest upon us,
As our hope has found rest in you.
May your creative goodness lead us beyond our private goals;
Your redemptive love move us toward mutual care;
And your transforming power renew our lives.*

CONGREGATION AND CHOIR

1. Lord, keep us steadfast in your Word;
Curb those who by deceit or sword
Would wrest the kingdom from your Son
And bring to nought all He has done.
(short interlude)
2. Lord Jesus Christ your pow'r make known,
For you are Lord of lords alone;
Defend your holy Church, that we
May sing your praise triumphantly.
(short interlude)
3. (slower)
O Comforter of priceless worth,
Send peace and unity on earth;
Support us in our final strife
And lead us out of death to life.

*PASTOR: Let us pray.

*PRAYER FOR REFORMATION AND RENEWAL OF THE CHURCH (In Unison)

ALMIGHTY GOD, GRACIOUS LORD, POUR OUT YOUR HOLY SPIRIT UPON YOUR FAITHFUL PEOPLE. KEEP US STEADFAST IN YOUR WORD, PROTECT AND COMFORT US IN ALL TEMPTATIONS, DEFEND US AGAINST ALL OUR ENEMIES, AND BESTOW ON THE CHURCH YOUR SAVING PEACE; THROUGH YOUR SON, JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD, WHO LIVES AND REIGNS WITH YOU AND THE HOLY SPIRIT, ONE GOD, NOW AND FOREVER. 1. A mighty fortress is our God,
A sword and shield victorious;
He breaks the cruel oppressor's rod
And wins salvation glorious.
The old satanic foe
Has sworn to work us woe!
With craft and dreadful might
He arms himself to fight.
On earth he has no equal.

2. No strength of ours can match his might!
We would be lost, rejected.
But now a champion comes to fight,
Whom God himself elected.
You ask who this may be?
The Lord of hosts is he!
Christ Jesus, mighty Lord,
God's only Son, adored.
He holds the field victorious.

3. Though hordes of devils fill the land
All threat'ning to devour us,
We tremble not, unmoved we stand;
They cannot overpower us.
Let this world's tyrant rage;
In battle we'll engage!
His might is doomed to fail;
God's judgment must prevail!
One little word subdues him.

4. God's Word forever shall abide,
No thanks to foes, who fear it;
For God himself fights by our side
With weapons of the Spirit.
Were they to take our house,
Goods, honor, child, or spouse,
Though life be wrenched away,
They cannot win the day.
The Kingdom's ours forever!

THE DEDICATION MUSIC

Lord Keep Us Steadfast by Dr. James E. Fritschel was commissioned by the family of Dr. Maynard and the late Doris Anderson in gratitude to God for life and grace, for love and music, for friends and Wartburg College.

Written for choir, double brass choir, and baritone soloist, the work is based on Lord, Keep Us Steadfast in Your Word, a hymn written by Martin Luther. The text from Psalm 33 was paraphrased by the Rev. Fred Fritschel and emphasizes the importance of the Word.

THE DEDICATION RECEPTION

Following each dedicatory service, worshipers are invited to tour the Wartburg Chapel and to attend a reception in the foyer of the Fine Arts Center.

THE WARTBURG CHAPEL

In Memory and Honor of Vera and Elmer Wavering

The Wartburg Chapel is dedicated in memory and honor of Vera and Elmer Wavering. A $1 million commitment from Elmer Wavering launched the chapel funding effort in 1989, and groundbreaking was held three years later as part of Wartburg's 1992 Homecoming activities.

Elmer Wavering of Naples, Fla., is the retired chief executive officer of Motorola. Born in Quincy, Ill., his interest in electronics led him to the invention of the car radio and the alternator, which made it possible to install electric components in automobiles. In 1989, he was inducted into the Automobile Hall of Fame in recognition of his contributions to the auto industry.

Wavering's discovery of an inexpensive method of producing quality crystal with Mississippi River sand revolutionized the communications industry. The technological advances made possible by this discovery led to Wavering's invention of the hand-held two-way radio and to the eventual development of sophisticated space communication systems and the cellular phone.

Elmer met his future wife, Vera, a teacher, on a business trip to St. Louis. They were engaged in a week and wed within a year, a union Wavering describes as "outstandingly successful." The couple had been married 52 years at the time of Vera's death in 1988.

Vera accompanied her husband on business trips, encouraged his career, and helped out in long-range planning for Motorola.

"He gives her a lot of credit for the good things that happened," says Wavering's daughter, Lynne Shotwell, now a member of the Wartburg College Board of Regents.

Wavering has been an active philanthropist, providing a park and an aquatic center for his hometown of Quincy and supporting the Florida Conservancy in its efforts to promote environmental protection, wildlife rehabilitation, and nature education. He was national honorary co-chair of Wartburg's 10-year Design for Tomorrow campaign and received an honorary degree from Wartburg in 1984.

"He's a very humble man," Shotwell says of her father. "He does everything with a great deal of humility."
