BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT

There are no right or wrong answers for this next section. It is important for students to achieve insight into the influence of life experiences in their career choice. This is a self-assessment tool designed to assist you. Prepare a three to four page biographical statement about yourself and the development of your interest in a social work career. The information in this application is confidential and will not be shared outside of the Social Work faculty. Include the following topics in your statement:

1. Basic personal and family information (what life forces made you who you are)
2. Reasons you are interested in social work including a description of what work or other experiences have heightened your interest in social work
3. Career plans
4. Personal strengths you take to the field
5. Personal areas in which you need improvement
6. Describe a time when you have sought help for a personal problem or issue (demonstrate understanding of the position of receiving support)
