ABOUT THE SOLOIST

David Cherwien served as cantor at Mount Olive Lutheran Church, Minneapolis, from 2001-2024, continuing the tradition of creative hymn singing begun and sustained by predecessors Paul Manz and Mark Sedio. From 2001 to 2023 Cherwien also served as artistic director of the National Lutheran Choir. Prior to those appointments, he served church music positions in Minneapolis, Chicago, Seattle, and Berlin, Germany. Cherwien is a nationally known conductor, composer and organist. Recognized for his contributions to the field of church music and liturgy, he is often called upon to serve as clinician and hymn festival leader across the country.

Cherwien has composed and published a considerable amount of music for the church with several publishers. During his time with the National Lutheran Choir, he served as editor of the National Lutheran Choir Series of choral music published by Morningstar Music Publishers and produced many recordings, including the “Hymns We Love To Sing” series, still available on Spotify or iTunes. He is a founding member of the Association of Lutheran Church Musicians and has served in its leadership in a variety of capacities, including as national president from 1993 to 1997.
