About The Wartburg Choir

Founded in 1937, the internationally acclaimed Wartburg Choir performs sacred music from all historical periods and styles and often collaborates with contemporary composers, including Morten Lauridsen, Ēriks Ešenvalds, Jake Runestad, Ola Gjeilo, and Shawn Kirchner. Choir members are chosen by audition and represent most academic disciplines on campus. The choir makes annual concert tours throughout the United States and travels abroad every three years during the college’s one-month May Term. For more than 80 years the choir has toured domestically and internationally, visiting 38 U.S. states, the District of Columbia, 23 European countries, Scandinavia, South Africa, and three Canadian provinces. The Wartburg Choir represents one of the five vibrant choral ensembles offered through the music department.

The Wartburg Choir has performed at many prestigious concert halls throughout the United States. The choir performed with opera star Simon Estes at Orchestra Hall, Minneapolis; Kennedy Center, Washington, D.C.; Lincoln Center, New York; and Orchestra Hall at Symphony Center, Chicago. Estes and the choir also performed two concerts with the Czech National Symphony Orchestra in Prague. The Wartburg Choir has also performed solo concerts at Carnegie Hall on two different occasions.

A 1999 Iowa Public Television production of the Wartburg Choir at the Wartburg Castle in Eisenach, Germany, was broadcast on public television stations throughout the United States. It marked the first performance ever taped for television at the historic castle, where Martin Luther took refuge for 10 months during the stormy days of the Protestant Reformation. In May 2017, a new television production was taped in Wittenberg, Eisenach, Erfurt, Leipzig, and Neuendettelsau, Germany, as the choir followed the path of Martin Luther and the Reformation. “The Wartburg Choir in Germany: Celebrating 500 years of Reformation” is now available online and is being shown worldwide.

Director History

The Wartburg Choir was founded in 1937 by Dr. Edwin Liemohn, a student of F. Melius Christiansen, founder of the St. Olaf Choir and the a cappella Lutheran choral tradition. During his tenure, he set a high standard of choral excellence, initiated the first Christmas with Wartburg festival in 1947, began the tradition of national concert tours, and coordinated the choir’s first international tour.

Dr. James Fritschel, a student of Liemohn’s, put his own stamp on the choir beginning in 1968. His singers toured Europe in 1974 and began the tradition of performing at the Wartburg Castle, the college’s namesake in Eisenach, Germany. In 1980, the Wartburg Choir became the first American choral group to win first place at the International Choral Festival in Cork, Ireland. A prolific composer, Fritschel left a lasting mark on the Lutheran choral tradition.

In 1984 Dr. Paul Torkelson, a student of Fritschel’s, became the third director of the Wartburg Choir. His choirs gained international acclaim for their versatility and precision. The Washington Post described the choir as “A Mighty Fortress of Skill” in headlining a review of the 2004 Kennedy Center concert by music critic Cecelia Porter. She described the choir as “a chorus trained with rock-solid discipline ... The choir has impeccable intonation and excellent diction.”

Dr. Lee Nelson became the choir’s fourth director in 2009. Under his leadership the Wartburg Choir amassed many new champions for the group. His efforts have increased the awareness and reputation of the choir. The group is in high demand for premieres of new compositions and continues to be praised by critics wherever it appears.

“Where charity and love abide, God is there.” These words originate from the 10th century antiphon “Ubi Caritas” and serve as the inspiration for today’s concert. In May 2017, the Wartburg Choir visited Neuendettelsau, Germany, on its international tour. Neuendettelsau is the home of Pastor Wilhem Löhe, who founded the Diakonie Neuendettelsau, an institute for deaconesses who serve those in need. The Diakonie is one of Germany’s largest independent Christian institutions for social welfare work. Wartburg College traces its roots to 1852, when Löhe sent Pastor Georg Grossmann to create a teacher-training school for German immigrants. Pastor Löhe’s legacy is evident still today because of visionary leadership and mission work, which uses the tenets found in Matthew 25 as the basis for his service to others. In this biblical passage, Christ describes the corporal acts of mercy: feed the hungry, give water to the thirsty, clothe the naked, shelter the homeless, tend to the sick, visit the imprisoned, and bury the dead. Today, Neuendettelsau continues to be a hub for social, medical, entrepreneurial, and spiritual services for those in need. It lives out the ideal of “loving your neighbor as yourself.” The music you will hear today explores and invites you to reflect upon ways in which kindness and love provide ourselves, our neighbors, and the world around us with the everlasting gift of grace. Where love abides, God is there.

Singet dem Herrn ein neues Lied
(BWV 225)
Johann Sebastian Bach (1685 - 1750)
Sung in German
Sing to the Lord a new song!
The assembly of saints shall praise him.
Let Israel rejoice in him who made him.
May the children of Zion be joyful in their king.
They shall praise his name in the dance;
with timbrel and harps they shall pray to him.
-Psalm 149: 1-3

Canticle of Praise
René Clausen (b. 1953)
Praised be my Lord, praised be God!
Praised be my Lord with all his creatures,
and to our brother the sun,
who brings us the day and the night.
How fair is he, and shining with great splendor.
O Lord, his brightness is like unto thee!
Alleluia!

Our Father
Alexander Gretchaninoff (1864 - 1956)
Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord of Sabaoth, Heavn and earth are full of Thy glory.
Thine are kingdoms, thrones, dominions,
might and majesty.
Thy Name be hallow’d on earth,
As it is hallow’d in heav’n.
Thou givest strength to the weak;
Thou remembrest the poor and the distress’d
And upon them that fear Thy name Show’rs of blessing unnumber’d shall fall;
peace shall follow them.
By still waters their path shall be.
Sing then of mercy, of judgement, of kingdoms,
of thrones, dominions and pow’r for evermore.
Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts.
Come to us O Lord in splendor bright, fill our hearts with everlasting light. Amen.

Dixit in Corde Suo
Levente Gyöngyösi (b. 1975)
Sung in Latin
The fool says in his heart, “There is no God.”
They are corrupt, and their ways are vile;
there is no one who does good.
God looks down from heaven on all people to see if there are any who understand, any who seek God.
Everyone has turned away,
all have become corrupt;
there is no one who does good, not even one.
Do all these evildoers know nothing?
They devour my people as though eating bread;
they never call on God. But there they are, overwhelmed with fear, where there was nothing to fear.
God scattered the bones of those who attacked you;
you put them to shame, for God despised them.
Oh, that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion!
When God restores his people,
let Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad!
-Psalm 53

Indodana
arr. Michael Barrett and Ralf Schmitt
Sung in IsiXhosa
The Lord has taken his son who lived amongst us
The son of the Lord God was crucified.
Hololo! Father Jehovah! Zjem zja! Father!
(Hololo represents crying and has no translation.
Zjem zja is expressive and has no translation)

Carissimi
J. Aaron McDermid (b. 1974)
Sung in Latin
Dearly beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God.
And everyone who loves is born of God,
for God is love.
No one has ever seen God.
But if we love one another,
God abides in us, and his love is perfected in us.
God is love: and those that abide in love abide in God and God in them.
-1 John 4: 7, 8b, 12, 16b

From J. Aaron McDermid:
God is love. When first written nearly 2000 years ago, these words from 1 John offered a startling and unique new way of understanding God. The words “God is love” occur twice in the text of this piece, and both statements subtly introduce some raised pitches to the music. These raised notes are intended to lift the music into a new harmonic realm, just as the words “God is love” elevate our understanding of God into a higher plane of thought. The final phrase of text, “those that live in love live in God, and God lives in them,” is set in two contrasting styless. The first statement marks the high point of the piece, proclaiming joy in the mystical union with God; the invisible God is made visible in our midst.
Yet oneness with God can seem beyond our human understanding, so as the music comes to rest, the second statement of this text is set with mysterious harmonies in an almost weightless tempo. A high soprano solo then leads back to the opening material, “Beloved, let us love one another,” and the piece concludes with this call to action.

Great God Almighty
arr. Stacey V. Gibbs (b. 1964)
Refrain:
God! Great God a’migh’y!
Great God a’migh’y!
Ridin’ in a hurry, ridin’ like he angry,
bullwhip in one han’, cowhide in de’ othuh, Singin’...

Refrain
Cap’ain went to yellun’, (Great God!)
oh, cap’ain went to yelun’, (did you hear de cap’ain shout?)
“Take off yo’ shirt now,
’cause I’m gonna kill ya!” No!

Refrain
Hear de cap’ain comin’, ridin’, won’ be no mo’, runnin’ an’ hidin’.
O hear my cry,
O Lawd, please hear my plea O Lawd.
Bully went to pleadin’, (have mercy, have mercy)
O Lawd, have mercy, mercy, Cap’ain don’ you kill me,
please don’ you kill me,
O cap’ain don’ you kill me!
No, stop! I’m figh’in’ till my death.
I’m gonna keep on arunnin’ til my ver’ las’ breath, Shoutin’... Great God a’migh’y!
Great God a’migh’y!

From Stacey V. Gibbs:
Great God Almighty is a work song of a slave as he attempts to escape from his oppressors. The aggressive text speaks to his tenacity, perseverance and zeal to endure and overcome. This story mirrors life today as we encounter obstacles and circumstances that require us to be resilient, unwavering and hopeful.

We Can Mend the Sky
Jake Runestad (b. 1986)
Sung in Somali and English
Let’s go! To save your life (soul), run with all your might.
- Somali proverb

In my dream I saw a world
free of violence, hunger, suffering.
A world filled with love.
Now awake in this world, I beg let my dream come true.
- Warda Mohamed (written at 14 years of age and an immigrant from Somalia)
If we come together, we can mend a crack in the sky.
- Somali proverb

From Jake Runestad
My sister was an English teacher at the Minnesota International Middle School in Minneapolis, which provides a safe and inclusive environment for East African immigrant students to learn (many of whom are Somali). Most of these students came to the USA to escape the violent civil war that has plagued Somalia since 1991. Seeking a better life for their children, these students’ parents risked their lives to come to the USA – a valiant act of love. I wanted to tell their story through music, and so I asked my sister to have her students write poems about their experiences leaving their home and coming to the USA. I received over 100 poems that contain passion, pride, emotion, and vivid stories of the sights and sounds that these young people have experienced. I sifted through these texts and found the powerful words of 14-year-old Warda Mohamed that became the backbone of the composition. Using Warda’s poem and two Somali proverbs, “We Can Mend the Sky” is a musical depiction of one’s journey as an immigrant and an affirmation of hope as we all embrace the diversity around us.

Ubi Caritas (from Quatre Motets, Op. 10)
Maurice Duruflé (1902 - 1986)
Sung in Latin
Where charity and love are, God is there.
Christ’s love has gathered us into one.
Let us rejoice and be pleased in Him.
Let us fear, and let us love the living God.
And may we love each other with a sincere heart.
Amen.

This House of Peace
Ralph Johnson (b. 1955)
Sung in English
“She is sleeping well. I am so grateful for every breath.
I was scared, but you seemed to change all that.
Thank you for your prayers. She is sleeping well.
Thank you.”

Bless Thou this house from roof to floor.
Bless Thou each pilgrim seeking refuge at our door.
Fill every room with peace and grace that all who sojourn her find healing in this place.

“I want you to know that my little girl was conceived under a bridge.
I have never lived in a house before that is clean all the time;
where people talk nice to each other, all the time.
We feel at home here. I learned I can be here.
I want this for my baby.”

Bless Thou this house with fire and light;
bless Thou each child who cries for comfort in the night;
and by Thy healing gift imbued, may every wounded one we touch see life renewed.

“We live moment to moment now, not knowing what next will be.
And in this unknown, I live in peace.
She is sleeping well. Thank you.”

Guide Thou our hands to heal and bless.
Touch all who meet here with Thy love and gentleness.
Soothe all our hearts, let grieving cease may we find wholeness within this house of peace.

“And in this unknown, I live in peace.”

From Ralph Johnson:
This House of Peace was commissioned in 2008 to celebrate the grand opening of the Sacred Heart Medical Center at RiverBend in Springfield, Ore., and was premiered that year by the Stangeland Family Youth Choral Academy at the Oregon Bach Festival in Eugene, Ore. The text weaves together the actual words of family members who stayed in the medical center’s family guest house while their loved ones were in the hospital and a “healer’s prayer” adapted by the composer from a poem by English clergyman and writer David Adam.

The solo sections present the thoughts and feelings of several people: the spouse of a seriously ill patient, the parent of an adult child who lies in a coma after a traffic accident, and an unwed young mother whose baby is in the neonatal intensive care unit. Framing and reflecting upon these solo sections is the prayer, sung by the full choir, which serves a chorale-like function, intimating the sacred nature of the relationship between those who offer care and those who seek it, the holiness of each “house” in which such care is given.

Dr. Lee Nelson is the Patricia R. Zahn Chair in Choral Conducting and director of choral activities at Wartburg College in Waverly, Iowa. Nelson conducts the Wartburg Choir and Ritterchor (men’s choir) and teaches beginning and advanced conducting and choral literature at Wartburg. He also serves as the artistic director of Christmas with Wartburg. Wartburg College recognized Nelson’s work by awarding him the John O. Chellevold Award for Excellence in Teaching and Service.

Under Nelson’s direction, the Wartburg Choir has performed nationally and internationally, including unprecedented performances at the White House and the National Cathedral in Washington, D.C. The choir has performed at multiple conventions of the American Choral Director’s Association, including the 2017 National Convention. His national and international tours have earned overwhelmingly positive reviews where critics lauded Nelson’s innovative programming and the choir’s “rich and flexible choral tone and impeccable intonation.” The choir was honored as the national winners of The American Prize, College/University Choir Division in 2017. Internationally renowned composer Morten Lauridsen praised Nelson and the Wartburg Choir’s performance of his “O Magnum Mysterium” stating: “It was in the top echelon of any performance of that piece by any choir that I have ever heard.” On the most recent international tour, a television production of “The Wartburg Choir in Germany: Celebrating 500 years of Reformation” was taped and is now being shown worldwide.

A highly sought-after conductor, clinician and adjudicator, Nelson has directed all state and honor choirs throughout the United States and internationally. He has also been invited to conduct at Carnegie Hall on multiple occasions. Most recently, he conducted a 300-voice choir and orchestra in a performance of Randall Thompson’s Testament of Freedom at the “Carnegie Hall President’s Day Concert.” Earlier in his career, Nelson won the National ACDA Graduate Conducting Competition in Los Angeles and received the Outstanding Young Choral Conductor of the Year, awarded by ACDA of Minnesota.

Nelson is an active member of the National Association for Music Education, where he served as an elected member of the National Choral Council, and the American Choral Directors Association. A champion of contemporary music, Nelson regularly commissions and performs new works of choral literature. ECS Publishing distributes the Lee Nelson Choral Series both nationally and internationally. Nelson earned a Bachelor of Music degree from Concordia College and Master of Music and Doctor of Musical Arts degrees from the University of Arizona.
The Wartburg Choir is the only American choral group with a standing invitation to perform at the Wartburg Castle, the namesake of Wartburg College. It is now a regular performance venue on international tours.

Music as a Major

- The Bachelor of Music Education degree meets the requirements of the Iowa Department of Education for K-12 music licensure. This entitles students to teach in the elementary general music classroom or a band, choir, or orchestral setting at the middle or high school level.

- The Bachelor of Music Education/Music Therapy dual degree is offered for those who wish to use music to help children and adults with special needs. This degree allows students to combine K-12 music licensure through the state department of education with certification as a board-certified music therapist (MT-BC) through the American Music Therapy Association.

- The Bachelor of Music in Music Therapy degree meets the requirements for certification as a music therapist (MT-BC) through the American Music Therapy Association. The program includes coursework in social work and opportunities for minor concentrations.

- The Master of Music in Music Therapy offers training in advanced competencies for credentialed music therapists or for those who have completed a bachelor’s degree in music therapy. The curricular structure of the MA-MT emphasizes research and practice, acknowledging that degree seekers already have completed professional certification in their field.

- The Bachelor of Music degree prepares students for further study leading to professional performance, studio teaching, or work in church music.

- The Bachelor of Arts degree in music prepares students for a variety of career options in the music field. This degree is the most flexible music degree, allowing students to combine a music major and minor field, such as business or religion. The major also offers concentrations in church music and piano pedagogy.

Music Enriches Campus Life

Wartburg takes its name from the Wartburg Castle in Eisenach, Germany, where Martin Luther took refuge for 10 months during the stormy days of the Protestant Reformation. Music groups frequently visit the castle during their May Term trips abroad.
