

Date occurred: Fall Term; sanction implemented mid-September

Date reported: Fall Term

Location: N/A

Description: Multiple females, including current, former and nonstudents reported a male student was making unwanted advances towards them via social media.

Category: Violation of Community Standards

Resolution: The Title IX Coordinator determined the respondent's actions were not a violation of Title IX policy and sanctions implemented through the student code of conduct. No further reports after sanctions.

UPDATE 2/6/2020: Student was suspended from the college following additional complaints.

Contact for more information: Jay Tommasin, Director of Safety & Security

Date occurred: Winter Break

Date reported: 3/10/20

Location: Art Studio, Bachman Fine Arts Center

Description: Students discovered a controversial piece of art in the art studio following Winter Break. At this time, it is unclear of the intended meaning behind the piece.

Category: Controversial piece of art

Resolution: Jay Tommasin is trying to locate the individual(s) responsible for the artwork.

Contact for more information: Jay Tommasin, Director of Safety & Security

Date occurred: 3/11/20

Date reported: 3/11/20

Location: Second floor, Founders Hall bathroom

Description: A student found KKK written inside a bathroom stall

Category: Hate Speech

Resolution: Jay Tommasin is trying to locate individual(s) responsible.

Contact for more information: Jay Tommasin, Director of Safety & Security